Season Ticket Information

This Policy is available at www.NFRexperience.com. Season ticket holders may also contact the LVE office and request a copy of the policy be mailed to them.

Account Holder Definition: The name(s) and address stated on the Las Vegas Events ("LVE") ticket application and computer system shall be the "Season Tickets Account Holder" (sometimes the "Account Holder") and all communication by and between LVE and the Season Tickets Account Holder must be only through these parties. There is a maximum of two account holders of record per account.

Account Holder Responsibility

1. LVE will only accept changes to or inquiries about the Season Ticket Account from the Account Holder(s).
2. If the Season Tickets Account Holder is a business or trust, the business or trust must designate a single individual as the "Authorized Representative" for purposes of communicating with LVE regarding the account.
3. The Account Holder(s) are bound by the terms and conditions appearing on the back of the Season Tickets.
4. Any changes to the Account Holder's mailing address will only be made upon receipt by LVE of a completed "Account Holder Change of Information Form" signed by Account Holder(s). Address changes will not be made over the phone.
5. Each Season Ticket Account Holder is responsible for providing a current mailing address to the Las Vegas Events Ticket Office. The deadline for submitting an address change is August 1st. In the event tickets are returned to Las Vegas Events due to an incorrect mailing address, the Account Holder(s) will be responsible for any additional mailing charges. Payment of additional mailing charge must be submitted to the LVE ticket office before the tickets will be re-mailed.
6. All account holders have an opportunity to provide updated contact information with the annual NFR Ticket Invoice. Should your contact information change throughout the year, please send an Account Holder Change of Information Form by mail to the Las Vegas Events Ticket Office or by email to TicketOffice@LasVegasEvents.com.
7. All Season Ticket Account Holders must have a valid email and phone number on file with LVE.
 - a. The Las Vegas Events Ticket Office preferred method of communication is via email.
 - b. It is the responsibility of the Account Holder(s) of record to make sure all contact information on the season ticket account is up to date.
8. Each Season Ticket Account Holder must be at least 18 years of age.

Season Ticket Account Constraints

There is only one account allowed per household with a maximum of two (2) account holders of record. The term household means, but is not limited to adults (individuals over the age of 18) related by blood or marriage living in a single dwelling, spouses, and domestic partners recognized under the laws of the state in which the Account Holder(s) lives. Season Ticket Accounts are allowed a maximum of four tickets.

Invoice Payments/Due Dates

Personal check, cashier's check and money order are the only acceptable forms of payment for season tickets. A $25 late payment charge will be added to your account on invoices paid after the due date. You have 15 days past the due date stated on your NFR invoice to submit payment with the above $25 late fee. Failure to pay your invoice within 15 days of the invoice due date will result in the loss of your season ticket renewal privileges.

Receipt of Tickets

If you have paid for, but not received your season tickets by November 1st of each year, contact the Las Vegas Events Ticket Office immediately.

Revocable License

Wrangler National Finals Rodeo tickets grant a revocable license to Accounts Holders that may be withdrawn at any time by LVE in its sole and complete discretion. The revocable license granted to Account Holders does not convey any property right to the Account Holder. The purchase of NFR season tickets does not qualify or entitle the Account Holder to an automatic renewal of tickets in subsequent years. Without in any way limiting its rights, LVE expressly reserves the right to change season ticket policies and prices at any time and for any reason with or without notice.

LVE will revoke season tickets for the following exemplary reasons:

1. Any form of unauthorized activity relating to obtaining, selling, reselling, exchanging or using NFR season tickets;
2. Purchasing tickets for the sole purpose and/or intent of unauthorized reselling.
3. Scalping
 - a. Scalping is selling a ticket above face value.
 - b. The scalping of NFR tickets at any time is strictly prohibited as it violates the NFR ticket policy as well as Nevada State law.
 - c. Attempting to sell or solicit the sale of a ticket(s) (even at face value) on UNLV campus without a Business license also violates NFR and UNLV policy. Therefore, a violation of these policies and state law will result in revocation of your NFR season tickets for all future events.
4. Use of tickets for sweepstakes, contests, and/or promotions without the prior written consent from LVE and the NFR.
5. Any additional form of resale not authorized by Las Vegas Events and the NFR.
6. LVE reserves the right to revoke any existing season or single-performance ticket orders and declare you ineligible for future tickets if it receives sufficient information that a ticket sold to an Account Holder was sold or offered for resale on the UNLV campus for greater than the face value of the ticket.

Permitted Uses and Resale of NFR Seasons Tickets

The sale of NFR season tickets by Account Holders to family and friends without a profit is authorized. In addition, the resale of NFR tickets on the secondary online selling sites found at NFRexperience.com is also authorized.

The resale or transfer of ADA accessible seating is prohibited except to an individual with need for an accessible seat. If you are unable to use the ADA accessible seating tickets purchased, the Account Holder must contact the LVE Ticket Office for a refund on such tickets. LVE will then hold such tickets for sale to those in need of accessible seating.

In the event the Account Holder is unable to attend specific performances and needs to sell their tickets, LVE recommends utilizing one of our two ticket exchanges: the Official NFR Online Ticket Exchange or the Official NFR Onsite Ticket Exchange.

Official NFR Online Ticket Exchange (www.NFRexperience.com)

LVE, in association with the PRCA, has partnered with PrimeSport to provide rodeo fans with the opportunity to buy and sell Wrangler NFR tickets through the Official NFR Online Ticket Exchange. This site offers all rodeo fans the confidence that they are using a website which provides a safe, secure and authentic location to buy and sell rodeo tickets. This site may be accessed at www.NFRexperience.com. Please read the online ticket exchange Buyers & Sellers Guide for additional information.

Official NFR On-site Ticket Exchange – Cowboy Christmas Gift Show

An Official NFR On-site Ticket Exchange (the “Exchange”) is held annually at the Cowboy Christmas Gift Show during the Wrangler NFR. At the Exchange, Account Holders with tickets may sell their tickets back at face value. Due to inventory levels, the Official NFR Ticket Exchange may not purchase tickets for all performances.

If you know in advance that you will be unable to attend specific performances of the Wrangler NFR, you have the option of mailing your tickets in early to be sold on consignment at the Exchange. You must complete and submit the NFR TICKET EXCHANGE FORM located at www.NFRexperience.com or contact the LVE Ticket Office. Please mail tickets along with the form to LVE office.

Seat Improvement Requests

LVE annually provides the best possible seats for all season ticket holders. However, LVE experiences a very little turnover leaving very few seats available for use in the improvement process. LVE reviews all requests and attempt to improve as many seats as possible. During the annual invoicing period, if you do not wish to participate in a seat improvement, please check the “No” box found in the lower left corner of the white copy of your invoice that you mail in with your payment. If LVE is unable to handle a request, your seats will remain in the original seating location.

Transferring & Willing of Tickets

NFR season tickets may be transferred or willed ONLY to an “immediate family member” of an individual Account Holder. Immediate family members are defined as spouses, domestic partners recognized under the laws of the state in which the Account Holder lives, parties to a civil union recognized under the laws of the state in which the Account Holder lives, and children of the Account Holder. No other transfers or willing of NFR Season Tickets will be recognized as valid. Tickets must be transferred into the new Account Holder’s name prior to August 1st of the year in which the transfer is to take effect. Transfers sought after August 1st will not take effect until the following year. If the Account Holder is willing the tickets, the beneficiary’s name should be placed on file at LVE through submission of an Account Holder Transfer & Will form. LVE recommends that the Account Holder complete this form, however, if the Account Holder passes away without completing the form, the executor of the estate or another authorized representative of the estate must complete an Account Holder Transfer & Will form.

If the deceased Account Holder has included the transfer of his/her NFR tickets in a will to a spouse, domestic partner, person with whom they are joined in a civil union, or to a child, the tickets will be transferred to the individual identified. NO OTHER TRANSFERS WILL BE RECOGNIZED as NFR tickets do not convey a property right to the Account Holder. LVE advises that Account Holders include their account number, seat locations and recipient of the ticket expressly in the will.

If there is no will, Season Tickets will be transferred to the surviving spouse, domestic partner, or person with whom the Account Holder was joined in a civil union (appropriate documentation may be required).

If no spouse, domestic partner or person with whom the Account Holder was joined in civil union survives the Account Holder, then the surviving children will be offered the opportunity to become the Account Holder. If the children of the account holder are unable to unanimously agree on the disposition of the tickets then tickets will revert back to Las Vegas Events.

The transfer recipient must provide the LVE Ticket Office with a copy of the Death Certificate of the Account Holder as well as identification and the appropriate paperwork to show relation to the deceased along with the Change of Information Form updating the account contact information.

Transfer of Business-Owned Tickets – Tickets may be transferred from a business-owned entity to an individual account holder if the business ceases operation. The proposed account holder must have been owner of the business or a surviving “immediate family member” of the owner of the business. If the company is being sold, the transfer of tickets must take place prior to the sale of the business. Proper legal documentation must be provided in order to complete the transfer. Please contact the ticket office for details on the transfer of business owned tickets.

Divorce Settlement – Upon divorce or [legal] separation, LVE will honor an order of the court directing the retention or transfer of NFR season tickets. Without a court order, the tickets shall revert to the LVE who may divide the tickets equally between the parties.

Unauthorized Transfer of Season Tickets – LVE and the PRCA remain committed to the fans on the Season Ticket Waiting List. For this reason, the current ticket policy strictly prohibits any transfer of season tickets except in the limited circumstances outlined above. Any unauthorized transfer of season tickets, or any attempt to circumvent the official ticket policy on the transfer of NFR season tickets is a violation of this Ticket Policy and will result in the revocation of season tickets.

Fan Code of Conduct

Las Vegas Events and the PRCA are committed to providing an enjoyable and safe experience. Irresponsible conduct will not be tolerated at the Thomas & Mack Center or in its parking lots and, in some cases, may result in ejection from the premises and/or an arrest. The following will not be tolerated:

- Behavior that is unruly, disruptive, or illegal in nature.
- Intoxication or other signs of alcohol impairment resulting in irresponsible behavior.
- Foul or abusive language or obscene gestures.
- Interference with the performance (including throwing objects into the arena).
- Failing to follow instructions of arena personnel.
- Verbal or physical harassment of fans.
- Any other conduct deemed to be beyond the bounds of reason.

Repeat violations of the above policy may result in the revocation of season tickets, regardless of whether or not the spectators or violators using the tickets are the season ticket holders of record.
